

DOMAINE PETRONI

CORSE

CORSICA

Story

Since 1885, the Petroni estate has had its roots on the banks of the Diana pond. Here lies an extraordinary vineyard combining an exceptional terroir and the sea spray giving its wines all their character. No less than 130 ha are spread out today in the heart of the appellation Vin de Corse.

Since 2008, the Ramazotti brothers, animated by the values of authenticity, of working the land and creating exceptional wines, run the estate. A word of order to transmit this passion to the new generation, a bet held with Hugo Ramazotti who wishes to preserve the identity of the vineyard and the island by joining in an eco-responsible step.
